Brinson Leaves FHP To Take Up Farming

Sgt. B. W. Brinson, who has served as Florida Highway Patrol officer in Palm Beach County for the past 15 months and has been stationed at Pahokee for several months, has resigned from the Highway Patrol and left Monday with Mrs. Brinson and their daughter, Beverly Ann, for Madison Fla., his former home, where they will live with his mother, Mrs. B. Mr. Brinson joined the Highway Patrol in 1941, completing 10 years of service as a patrolman. ## Fire Well Is Dug Near Packing Houses

William McClenahan, dragline contractor, recently completed the digging of a small reservoir to serve as a fire well for the protection of the Canal Point Packing house center.

The reservoir, located between the Florida East Coast tracks and the lake levee, connects with the perimeter canal at the foot of the levee. The cost of its digging was financed jointly by the packing houses and business firms in the packing house center benefiting by its presence, with the Canal Point Lions Club acting as contracting agent for the group.

Governor Speaks Before Exposition

WINTER HAVEN—Speaking at the Governor's Day luncheon at the Florida Citrus Exposition here, Governor Fuller Warren expressed the hope that the legislature would make no change in present citrus code; but following his talk, Rep. S. Travis Phillips, representative from Brooksville and chairman of the house interim citrus committee, said he felt that some parts of the citrus code should be altered.

He said he referred to sections of the board law pertaining to tangerines and grapefruit which he feels needs to be more flexible. He said that he planned to introduce legislation giving the Florida Citrus Commission authority to approve shipment of fruit "where maturity is in question."

This commission approval would be done only after federal and state agencies have said it is all right, he added.

Phillips said Agricultural Commissioner Nathan Mayo has advised him he would back the plan of giving such powers to the commission with the cooperation of state and federal agencies.

37c Pound Marks New High For Steer On Local Market

Sale of choice Brahma steers bringing an average of 4.75 cents per pound live-weight, and ranging up to 37 cents per pound on individual steer, was recorded Monday at the Glades Livestock Market Assn's Market, according to George Young, manager.

The average, a net price to the seller, marks a new high at the market "and probably through the State," Mr. Young said.

Fritz Stein, local cattleman, sold 20 steers for $7,051.68 and 27 for $9,896.78, for the 34.75 cents net average, the manager said. All were dry lot fed.

One steer weighing 1,340 pounds sold for 37 cents a pound, or $4,95.80, while another weighing 1,930, brought 37.75 cents per pound for $612.

There were 155 cattle sold at the market Monday with Swift & Co., Armour's, Lykes Brothers and Kingan & Co., the principal buyers, Young said.

Cattle sales are held every Monday.

Low Price On Levee L-8 Received By Engineers Tuesday

The lowest bid submitted to the Corps of Engineers Tuesday for levee and canal construction in the Central and Southern Florida flood control projects was nearly a half million dollars lower than the government's estimate.

Five bids were received for construction of levee and canal L-8 which will run from the West Palm Beach canal near Twenty Mile Bend and his Lake Okechobee at a spot south of the St. Lucie canal. The levee will be 21.7 miles long and extend southeastward from Lake Okechobee. L-8 is the largest contract project yet advertised in the huge flood control program.

Robert Lee Inc., of Manning, SC submitted the apparent low offer of $1,217,262. Clemmons Construction Co. of West New York, NJ, was second low at $1,596,534. The government estimate was $1,772,696.

FRISH TALKS ON FISH

Pahokee Lions at their Tuesday luncheon meeting heard a talk by Harry M. Frish, technician of the State Game and Fresh Water Commission, on "The Wildlife Conservation Program in Florida." The speaker was introduced by I. M. Lair, program chairman. James W. Vann, vice president, presided in the absence of President Thomas Baldwin.

Fortune Smiles On Leaf Crop Growers

(By Mrs. G. J. Barstow)

Lady Luck has smiled once more on the winter growers of the Lake Okechobee Everglades by granting a combination, of circumstances which is making it possible for them not only to recoup losses of previous years but also to bring in nice returns if good weather continues for a few more weeks.

The growers of cabbage, lettuce, celery, romaine and endive which have largely replaced the former midwinter snap bean crops, have really come into their own in the last few weeks.

The unusually cool weather which prevailed during the winter months this season, while not favorable to the growth of snap beans, has been extremely favorable to the growing of a fancy quality of cabbage and other leafy vegetables.

This combined with the fact that other competing areas in Texas and other southern states have been frozen out, has resulted in market prices higher than the Everglades cabbage grower has ever before experienced.

Packers report that cabbage growers at present prices have been netting around $1,000 per acre of cabbage. A car of cabbage can easily be cut from one acre and many of the cabbage growers have acreages that range from 100 to 1,000 acres, while small growers may have from 20 to 100 acres.

While the cabbage harvest is just now coming into the peak of production, some growers have been cutting since December and shipping daily.

It is estimated that some of these lucky growers will gross $1,000,000 on this one crop. This, however, does not mean that their net take will be at that figure, since most of them have lost steadily on their crops for the last three years partly from crop disasters and poor markets.

The lettuce and celery growers are also receiving excellent prices for their crops and bid fair to come out in good shape on the years' operations despite the failure of practically all fall crops.

The Lake Okechobee Everglades farming has always been one of the biggest farming gambles in the United States. A grower may be made or broke on the turn of fortune's wheel.

In the undeclared Naval war with France in 1798, U. S. Marines helped in the seizure of 90 French vessels.

Traffic Mishaps In County Total 44 Month Of January

There were 44 traffic accidents in Palm Beach County during the month of January, resulting in two persons killed and 32 injured, according to a Department of Public Safety report released last week and at the Florida Highway Patrol district office in Pahokee by Lt. H. Lee Simmons.

During the same period FHP officers recovered two stolen cars in Palm Beach County, made 89 arrests for traffic law violations, issued 370 written warnings of faulty equipment and 118 of improper driving, gave assistance to 222 motorists, and gave driver's license examinations to 600 applicants, of which 481 passed and 119 failed.

The January record for the entire district, including Palm Beach, Martin, St. Lucie, Indian River and Okechobee Counties, was as follows: Accidents, 72, with 4 killed and 53 injured; stolen cars recovered, 4; arrests, 167; written warnings of faulty equipment, 607, of improper driving, 191; motorists assisted, 349; driver's examination passed, 604, failed 193. In their safety education program FHP officers gave 10 talks at public meetings, 15 talks over the radio and showed 14 films on safe driving.

PHS Basketball Squads End Season

The Pahokee Blue Devil basketball teams will end their season when they meet the Belle Glade Rams in the local gym Monday evening, Feb. 26. The Rams will be highly favored to win since they won their first tilt with the Blue Devils and eliminated the Pahokee cagers in the first round of the Supacost Conference tournament last weekend, ending up a close runner-up to first place Lake Worth in the tournament. The Pahokee team will play against Lake Worth in the District tournament on Feb. 28.

Up to date Coach Bill Howard's A team has a record of 4 wins and 9 defeats and Coach Jim Maynor's B team has chalked up a record of 9 wins and four losses.

Training School Is Scheduled In Pahokee

The Pahokee First Methodist Board of Christian Education at a meeting in the church Monday night voted to sponsor a training school for Sunday School teachers, Junior through the adult departments, to be held at the church April 15-19. Dr. W. V. Meredith of Lakeland will conduct the school and all Methodist Sunday School in the Glades area will be invited to participate.

Plans were announced for a Vacation Bible School to be held at the church next summer, the dates to be announced. Mrs. Clyde A. Canipe volunteered to serve as superintendent of the Bible school and an effort will be made to secure the services of a "Youth Caravan" on the teaching staff.

News Notes From State Capital

TALLAHASSEE—The state improvement commission and Governor Warren have turned over to Attorney General Richard W. Ervin the task of finding out, if possible, what might be done to recover money supposedly lost to the state during the furnishing of the new supreme court building. Still lost is some $3,000 worth of court furniture not accounted for. The improvement commission itself reported that furniture designed for the court had been used to furnish the commission rooms, prior to the time the present personnel took office. I. W. Snyder, chief clerk of the commission under the preceding Holland and Caldwell administrations, but who resigned recently, said much of the confusion in accounting for furniture was due to the members of the court changing their minds. They refused, he said, to let a $1,000 combination radio and record player remain there, and the company refused to take it back, so it remains today in Snyder's home.

TALLAHASSEE—The state road department set up $141,000,000 worth of projects for 1951; swollen beyond anticipated income to allow shifting with war conditions. Chairman Alfred A. McKeehan said the budget, still in tentative form, is $33,000,000 more than expected income. But he added that some of the items in the budget may have to be postponed under war restrictions, and others have been put in to take up the slack. For the first time the department budgeted money for roads in and to state parks, $1,083,540. It set up $25,722,745 for the Duval county expressway, $100,000 for more roadside parks, $100,000 for information stations at the state line, $15,000 for experimental turnouts for rural mail boxes, $95,920 for paving around farmers' markets and $50,351 for projects at state institutions. Money to pay for the program comes from state gasoline taxes, federal funds, contributions from cities and counties and from bond issues.

TALLAHASSEE—Florida Forest Service reported that $367,000 acres of the protected woodlands were burned during 1950, but the remainder of the 12,933,003 acres of protected woodlands escaped damage. In lands not protected by the state fire program, $4,410,000 acres were burned by 22,000 wildfires. More than half of the state's 20,000,000 acres of woodlands now are under protection.

TALLAHASSEE—State Senator Olin G. Shivers of Chipley led off the pre-legislative news this week with a prediction he will introduce legislation to put electric and gas utility companies under state regulation. REA and city-owned plants will be exempt. Opposition which prevented such legislation in 1949 has largely died down, and only a handful of communities still are fighting the change. The state railroad and public utilities commission of three members will regulate private electric and gas companies as they now regulate telephone and telegraph companies, railroads, motor bus and truck companies and most toll bridges. Senator W. A. Shands of Gainesville who will head finance and taxation in the upper house praised anti-bookie work for increasing race track revenue 25 per cent this year.

TALLAHASSEE—Rep. Travis Phillips, Hernando county, warned the state game and fresh water fish commission he would try to strip it of most of its powers. The commission continued without a decisive vote for chairman, splitting two-two on who shall lead them. Legislative dissatisfaction with the commission activities is expected to erupt into full scale action this spring. State Senator Amos Lewis of Marianna won a few hearing from the cabinet pardon board for Woodrow W. Jackson county, now on parole after a killing in 1938. The board will consider application for a full pardon March 13. Legislators are wrestling again with the problem of how to prevent corruptive bribery of public officials. Members agree privately there is no way to make men honest by law. Senator Wallace E. Strugis of Ocala, who will preside over the 1951 senate, will name a committee at the start of the session to try to redistrict Florida to take in two new congressmen allowed by population shift.

TALLAHASSEE—Frank S. Wright has resigned as assistant to Governor Warren and will re-open his public relations office in Miami. Wright parted from the state office with high praise for the chief executive and noted many improvements to the state since Fuller Warren took office. Wright was a long-time public relations director of the University of Florida; spent two and a half years in army air force service and returned to manage the Warren campaign in its 1948 successful bid for the governorship.

Sometimes Good
Intentions Aren't Enough

That fire at the Griffin place didn't do much damage last week, but Volunteer Chief Murphy was pretty angry about it. Spoke to some of us over dinner and a bottle of beer.

"Griffin's farm is a good mile from town," he said. "And by the time we'd dodged all the people on the highway who were going to watch, we hadn't a minute to waste."

"Then blamed if those sightseers hadn't parked cars right in Griffin's driveway and there was a mob of people milling around the house—just gawking. Joe, tell folks a fire's no sideshow. Ask 'em to think of the other fellow!"

From where I sit, some of us need to be reminded occasionally that even though our intentions are good we may be unfairly interfering. Whether it's blocking the right-of-way of fire equipment or criticizing a person's right to enjoy a temperate glass of beer now and then—the American Way is to give way, and give the other fellow his fair share of the road!"

Turkey Caller To Defend His Title

MOORE HAVEN—George Esphenlaub of Clewiston, world champion turkey caller, will defend his title here on Saturday, Feb. 24, at the annual Chalo Nitka Festival. Some of the foremost woodsmen of South Florida will be seeking to wrest the title from George. These woodsmen will also compete for trophies for gater calling, quail calling and duck calling.

The Festival begins with a parade at 1:00 o'clock in which the Seminole Indians from the Brighton and Big Cypress reservations will participate. High School bands from fifteen South Florida communities, floats, show horses, cowboys on horseback and other attractions will make the parade very colorful.

During the afternoon there will be casting contests for both amateurs and professionals, rowboat races and jousting contests on the Caloosahatchee River, and other events. Concession booths will provide visitors with entertainment and refreshment.

A free fish supper will be served in the evening, followed by a massed band concert and a square dance on Main Street.

A King of the Fish will be crowned concluding a five-week contest and a Queen of the Festival.

Gladioli Festival Will Open Monday

DELRAY BEACH—Mrs. Fuller Warren, state representatives, and mayors of neighboring towns will be present at the opening night of the fifth annual South Florida Gladioli Festival Monday, Feb. 26. The Lake Worth, Pahokee, West Palm Beach high school, West Palm Beach Junior high school, Seacrest, the Abu Shrine bands and twirling clubs are expected to be among those taking part in the parade which begins at 7 p. m.

Festival officials are completing last minute plans for the event which last year drew approximately 25,000 the night of the parade and 20,000 the week of the Festival.

Gladioli growers are making final preparations for displaying the thousands of blooms which have been grown especially for the occasion. Early in the week, Mike Machek, flower grower, said that there will be an abundance of blooms if the warm weather continues.

Business men from nearby towns have taken space in one of the two large commercial exhibit tents. Special exhibits will include displays of 4-H boys, Ted Pratt, author of the "Barefoot Mailman," the Florida Flood Control District, the U. S. Sugar Corporation, the State Forestry Service, Boy and Girl Scouts, hydroponic farming, the TB Association, a clothesline art show, Civil Defense and a panorama of local history.

There will be mechanical rides and several attractions, but the Gladioli Festival Association is operating the Festival this year without a carnival and member organizations will man the concessions booths.

Dean Hudson's orchestra, which proved so popular at the Valentine dance recently, will return on Wednesday night of the Festival. Dancing will take place at the far grounds nightly with Thursday night set aside for Negro dancers.

Mrs. Annie Maxwell of Jacksonville is a guest this week of her nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Maxwell, in Pahokee.

Many Proposed Laws Before Legislators

Nine bills concerning Palm Beach County which the County Commission will present at the forthcoming State Legislature were approved by and promised "our wholehearted support" by the county's three-man delegation at a legislative clinic last Friday—a conference on proposed legislation which was arranged by the County Commission.

Conducting the county-wide clinic were State Senator Russell O. Morrow, Rep. John E. Bollinger and B. Elliott, speaker designate of the house of representatives.

County Atty. Harry A. Johnston presented the measures at the clinic which were proposed by the commission. All members of the board attended the all-day session.

Changes in election laws are sought in one bill, which would provide for the County Canvassing Board to inspect all voting machines immediately after any election to assure completely accurate returns. The mandatory inspections would be open to any candidates or others.

Another election measure would require the county supervisor of registration to determine through card voters' residential status if they had voted in two successive elections. It would require a survey of voters' cards every two years.

Five proposed measures calling for certain county roads to be designated as State roads and a bill seeking to give the commission power of regulation over plats of developments planned for areas outside of municipalities rounded out the commission's legislative slate.

Charter revision for Pahokee, South Bay, which plans a complete new character; Lantana with establishment of a resort project at the municipal beach; and Lake worth were disclosed by officials of these towns.

Various drainage districts also submitted bills which included the Lake Worth Drainage District plans for general revision of its eastern boundary at a saving of some $40,000 for taxpayers.

South Florida Conservancy District will submit a bill seeking continuance of its $4 per acre tax for the next two years and the East Shore Drainage District will request a tax boost of from $3 to $4 per acre for maintenance to defray an estimated $15,000 expense for 8,000 acres. The tax would drop to $3 at the end of two years.

County school problems came in for prolonged discussion by the legislators with County School Board Chairman George W. Slaton, with consensus of opinion indicating the State must pay better teacher salaries and appropriate more money for the necessary school building projects.

Mr. Elliott described present State government maintenance as "extravagance" adding that "I'm a member of the economy bloc."

Also discussing school needs was Mrs. John P. Luke, Lantana, county PTA chairman, who declared "there's a lot of graft and money that doesn't always get to the schools as intended."

Other groups who presented proposed bills Property Owners and Managers' Association who seek abolition of the office of city manager, West Palm Beach, election of a full-time mayor and four commissioners, one of whom would be a Negro from a proposed new borough, called Westborough, in the Negro section; West Palm Beach Chamber of Commerce asking establishment of a small claims court in the county; West Palm Beach Commissioner Estelle Murer reporting on bills calling for changes in the Civil Service and Zoning Board of Appeals and tentative bill for a charter provision creating a police captain who can become police chief in event of a vacancy in the latter post.

Commission Groups Propose New Laws

JACKSONVILLE — The legislative committee of the State Association of County Commissioners proposed Friday that the legislature be asked to take from the commissioners authority to set opening and closing hours for liquor establishments outside city limits.

The committee said it was recommending the change because county boards have no enforcement powers.

The committee also voted to oppose the creation of a state tax commission.

Members said that aside from the fact they considered it a highly controversial matter they objected on the ground that the commission "would centralize most authority over local matters in Tallahassee."

The committee also rejected approval of a proposal that salaries of county commissioners be equalized over the state. The consensus was that the bill, should it be introduced in the legislature, would suffer multiple amendments, by various county delegations and there wouldn't be much left of the original proposal.

The association also was asked to stand firm against any proposal that would take from the counties the proceeds of the seventh cent of state gasoline taxes, given them at the 1949 special session.

PAHOKEE NEEDS A SOUND TELEPHONE COMPANY

Floridians don't have to think back far to realize the need for a financially healthy Telephone Company. Last October's hurricane knocked out 116,000 telephones . . . left poles, cables and wires snarled and broken.

Repair work broke all records for speed, but it took trainloads of materials and hundreds of extra telephone men from adjoining states. And the cost of repairing the damage was $1,700,000.

To make your telephone less vulnerable to hurricanes, 83 per cent of Florida's telephone lines have been placed underground at extra cost, and expensive emergency power systems are maintained at all telephone offices to help keep your telephone working though your lights may be out. During the October hurricane one unit was in operation for 75 hours. All Florida units averaged more than 16 hours of operation in 1950 — most of it from the hurricane.

The extra costs of hurricane protection, and the all-too-frequent costs of restoring hurricane damage, are added reasons why Florida must have a financially sound Telephone Company.

E. F. REDDY, District Manager

SOUTHERN BELL TELEPHONE AND TELEGRAPH COMPANY

$20,000,000

a Year for Florida

Telephone Construction

We've spent $105,000,000 since 1945 to expand and improve Florida's telephone service—and many millions more are required by continuing rapid growth.

The money to expand and improve telephone service does not come from the money you pay us for service . . . that money goes to pay wages, taxes and other operating costs. The money to build new facilities must be secured through the sale of our stocks, and bonds to people with money to invest.

That's why the future of telephone service depends on the Company's earning enough to make it worthwhile for people to invest their savings in the telephone business.

CHURCH OF CHRIST SCIENTIST

The revelation of God as one, supreme, infinite Mind, the source of all wisdom, is unfolded in Christian Science services next Sunday, when the Lesson-Sermon is entitled "MIND".
 The Golden Text is from Psalms 33:11: "The counsel of the Lord standeth for ever, the thoughts of his heart to all generations."
 Included in the readings from the Bible (King James Version) is the challenging statement made by Paul when writing to the Philippians (2:5): "Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus."
 The result of complying with Paul's statement is indicated in this passage from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, which is one of the citations in this lesson: "When we fully understand our relation to the Divine, we can have no other Mind but His,—no other Love, wisdom, or Truth, no other sense of life, and no consciousness of the existence of the matter or error" (page 205.)

WE ARE IN STEP WITH THE TIMES

It is no small task to record each week the happenings of any community. We here at The Everglades News are happy that our assignments bring us face to face with hundreds of folks of our community each week. We strive to KEEP IN STEP with what is going on here in this vast agricultural area on the eastern shore of Lake Okeechobee. It gives us a great deal of pleasure to record for you weekly (and for posterity) the happenings of a growing section of Florida. Future generations will thrill when they read of the pioneering efforts of you and your loved ones in establishing a great agricultural empire.

KEEPING IN STEP with the times means that we must be on our toes day in and day out—making an earnest effort to record those things which are interesting, historical, progressive and at times amusing. All such happenings go toward making up a worthwhile and happy community where living is just a mite better than in thousands of other places in America—where your neighbor's smile is just a mite friendlier than is witnessed elsewhere in this great land of ours.

Each week for more than a quarter of a century this Newspaper has reached its readers each Friday morning with full and complete news coverage of the Lake Okeechobee Farm Area. Bringing out The Everglades News each week—on schedule—has grown to be a habit with those of us who produce it. Not once during the 25 years of its existence has this newspaper missed a publication day. Through floods, hurricanes and other adverse antics of nature we have managed to make the deadline. It has been no small accomplishment.

GAINESVILLE—Enrollment continues to drop as they are dropping out of our state institutions. We do not have need for expansion. Appropriations and present facilities will more than take care of present day needs.

An enrollment of 8440 students for the second semester at the University of Florida was reported by Registrar R. S. Johnson.

This is a decrease of 1408 students as compared to registrations for the same period a year ago. As more and more young men are taken in the service, university and college registrations will continue to drop sharply.

Racing Results To Be Delayed Twenty Minutes After Race

MIAMI—The Florida State Racing Commission has ordered a 20 minute delay in transmission of race results from Florida tracks in a move to place additional handicaps on bookie operations.

Attorney General Ervin pleaded for the embargo in a two-hour hearing declaring it would help state authorities in their fight to cut off the flow of information "which is the lifeblood of the bookie."

A short time after the commission adjourned, Chairman Leo Edwards told turf writers in the press box at Hialeah Race Course that "information over the Associated Press wires for some reason ultimately has been going into illegal hands."

Edwards has no proof but says he understood that this was the main reason for putting the embargo into effect.
